

I believe the "do not call list" should be preserved as it is.
Calls at dinner time and unwanted sales calls are very annoying.
When we want to purchase something we ask our friends and utilize word of mouth advertising. Please keep the law as it stands now.